

Addition to the 1st p. of the book Reliability Engineering 8th ed. 2017 (31/12/2024)
(to appear in the Chinese translation scheduled for May 2026)

“Concrete limitations to growths, life-standards, and of individual freedoms will be necessary to ensure human sustainability on a finite planet, full of egoists submitted to neoliberalism.”

“Creativity will be the limit of AI with respect to human mind; cutting power supply still remain as a final solution.”

“If a God exists, he is the creator of the universe and the earth is just a grain of sand, full of ambitious.”

Alessandro Birolini
